A few years later, Israel moved to a little town near Brody, Poland, becoming a teacher to young children. When they pray according to falsified text, they raise such a din that the walls quake... and they turn over like wheels, with their head below and the legs above... He would teach both groups with short, mystical Torah explanations, parables and stories that alluded to the inner meaning of Kabbalistic ideas. Adherents were expected to show intense emotional fervor and utter purity of Distinguishing himself from the Lurianic understanding of tzimtzum divine contraction Dov Baer returned to the ideological system of the sixteenth-century kabbalist Moses Cordovero who envisaged tzimtzum as an act of concealment from the aspect of Divine Essence, whereas from the standpoint of human beings it is a manifestation of God. If the inner dimension of Nistar describes Jewish thought from God's perspective, then the increasing explanation of Hasidic philosophy through the teachings of the 7 leaders of Habad draws God's intellect down into man's comprehension. The article was written when she was a senior fellow at the Shalem Center in Jerusalem. Hayyim of Zlotchov, both ardent disciples of the Zlotchover maggid. The Kloize in Brody was evidently founded by R.
