This too is something we all need to work to groove in our attitude and actions. Your stories of eternal torment sound like threats and blackmail to me. And he got even more personal when he suggested that unbelievers should have a millstone tied around their neck and they should be drowned in the ocean Matthew

There are more than a few issues entirely within our control that give us a bad rap. We were never taught to try to convert people. Thomas Aquinas stated: everything which HAS a cause, must have a cause who caused it. The Gospel call to the entire world is a sincere one.

I am a follower of Jesus, but do not attend the institutional church anymore. E. once you have love then you will have the fruit of love.
