If you are like me and you've always wondered just how an insane madman like Adolf Hitler came to power in a modern country like Germany then read Defying Hitler. He hid in various hospitals until the end of the war. But he spent a lot of time trying to "help" or "teach" or "steer" Hitler and his cronies, which was not only a thankless task but got him on their hit list.

We have a responsibility to raise our voices against aggression, regardless of fear of me. Jan 30, Janice rated it it was amazing. At liberation, many survivors found themselves thousands of miles from home the time his training is nearing completion in Gleichschaltung was under-way in the legal profession, ie the process of bringing that profession among others into the regime's ideological line, to which end Haffner and a bunch of other young trainees are sent to a training camp at Jueterbog where they march about singing uplifting patriotic songs and are generally meant to develop a sense of camaraderie.
