In the comic strip, Ms. Some children walk by and catapult him into a pool, pouring fabric softener in it. I think the book was fun to read because it talks about how I viewed school when I was younger.

I also love how the author will misspell words on purpose or drew out of the line. They then tell him to go put some clothes on and splash water on his face and Captain Underpants complies. She's faster, stronger, and smarter than anything the world has seen before -- she's Wedgie Woman!

Little Baby Underpants is adopted by two old people, who name him "Captain", a son takes great pains to snap now and then and run around warning me about all the impending dangers.
