obligation is now lost and as the LDS church becomes increasingly more compatible with mainstream Protestantism, it ironically deflects Christian criticism of its sexual past by over-emphasizing its rhetoric opposing other sexualities. You are commenting using your Facebook account.

The annotated essay below is adapted from the following source, who continues to document the fact that this homosexual scandal actually had three layers to it. Some members were disciplined for not obeying it and meanwhile, senior leaders in addition to Smith took little or no notice of it themselves.
