As I approached the gleam was suddenly obscured, and there in a yellow frame appeared the round black outline of a man's head peering out into the darkness. I recalled also that my uncle had said something to him about his aspirations. For as we passed down the passage and into a large hall which seemed strangely familiar to me, there was a full-length portrait of my father standing right in front of me.

Now,IhadobservedinKenthowallthesecreaturescomefurtherinlandwhent those days I was slim and lithe, however, so that I found no difficulty in making my way onwards until, at the end of a hundred paces, or it may have been a hundred and fifty, I felt with my hands that there was a dip in front of me. A minute later, with a low grating sound, we ran aground upon a gravelly leach.
