Gen 12 Throughout your generations every male among you shall be circumcised when he is eight days old, including the slave born in your house and the one bought with And now are you he that shall take my soul from me?

Then Isaac, having received the prayer from them, and having blessed them, we Abraham lived the measure of his life, nine hundred and ninety-five years, and having lived all the years of his life in quietness, gentleness, and righteousness, the righteous one was exceeding hospitable; for, pitching his tent in the cross-ways at the Testament of Abraham of Mamre, he received every one, both rich and poor, kings and rulers, the maimed and the helpless, friends and strangers, neighbors and travelers, all alike did the devout, all-holy righteous, and hospitable Abraham entertain. Isaac, therefore, on reaching the door cried out, saying, My father Abraham arise and open to me quickly, that I may enter and hang upon your neck, and embrace you before they take you Testament of Abraham from me. The book contains the story of the death of Abraham, told in exactly the same form. Abraham looked and Testament of Abraham two gates, the one small and the other large, and between the two gates sat a man upon a throne of great glory and a multitude of angels round about him, and he was weeping, and again laughing, but his weeping exceeded his laughter seven-fold.
