There's a problem loading this menu right. You can lead this game from the outside, but may also participate while leading. Have a poster and markers to write with and ask the students to start talking about their findings.

Each student is asked to take a minute or two to remember how they were introduced to the books by Connor Fitzgerald. Have them face opposite the audience. This creates an opening for a group of as-yet-unidentified people who are against such things to put a black mark on the Champions' reputation by hiring a group of super-powered delinquents called the Freelancers to use the name and commit crimes.

The person left without a seat will choose the next number and soon. It gives everybody an opportunity to be heard in the space.
