Charles Dickens, English novelist, generally considered the greatest of the Victorian era. Start Your Free Trial Today. Atalanta in Calydon in particular has been lauded as one of his best early works, written inbefore the passionate excesses of later works earned him a sordid reputation for blasphemy and depravity among contemporary critics. Why? This most discreditable of Browns has a distinct and brawny outline of his own, a gait and accent as of a genuine and recognisable man, who might have put to some better profit his shifty spirit of enterprise, his genuine capacity of affection, his burly ingenuity and hardihood. The epic poem was to Arthurian myth what Atalanta in Calydon had been to Greek – a transfiguration of the story of The Friends of Algernon Swinburne doomed lovers Tristram and Iseult into modern verse and sensibility.
