We never fully arrive, but are always unfolding and discovering. Never do they love one another so well as when they witness the outpouring of each other's hearts in prayer. People around the world experience universal responses to music. May it be that the world sees what our God is like through our unity. We praise you Jesus that at your name every knee shall bow and every tongue confess that you are Lord to the glory of the Father. Scripture: The Lord lives!
As we pray today for restoration in our city let this story of answered prayer for will take you .
