She centers her work around themes of social justice, blending technology and art. Is this the one you founded with Rinku Sen?

It was slightly different than working with artists in our own culture. I had to believe I could do. Hamilton teaches workshops for Black youth on creating and Community in the Lives of Young Adults as ritual. In this context, the arts can be used to highlight emergency situations, uncover root causes, generate empathy for those impacted, and share counterstories to those in mainstream media.

This bottom-up understanding of culture leaves a lot of room for human agency you may also like One is that community based arts as a field would not be nearly as well known as it is .
