The Historical and Anthropological Report on the Quilombo of Pedra do Sal, 8 created a narrative for the conflict between the plaintiffs and the Catholic organization that presented the site as a contemporary version of Little Africa. And so Pedra do Sal's intangible biographical trajectory continues, with the permanent possibility of a social renaissance. Shareyourthoughtswithothercustomers. Architecturally, single and two-story colonial houses dominate the area, with the exception of the foot of the hill, where mixed-use or commercial activities, such as bars, restaurants, office supply, beverage storage, and body shops can be.
