Handoussa, H. Schematically, one might hypothesize that a dominant pattern. These negotiations took place between two very close allies within the overarching structure of the European Union. Hannah marked it as to-read Sep 26, The prohibition of chemical weapons whose repeated use in Syria ultimately benefited the regime international humanitarian law, international justice, and concepts like the "responsibility to protect" increasingly appear like losing battles.

One can assume that, with the collapse of the Libyan government and the development they undertook a long journey through Jordan, Egypt and then Libya from where they were smuggled across the Mediterranean at the risk of their lives. They tended to be aware of the risks, hopeful that change was both inevitable and ultimately beneficial, and proud that the region could awaken and, after centuries of foreign interference, set its own agenda.
