Frederick Paul Demange I One of the things that I enjoy most about the author's work, is her ability to moderate her delivery, dependent upon the story being told.

Sometimes facing your greatest fears can become your greatest accomplishment. Then I think of what it reminds me of and I slowly build up a story. So many stories of the lives of musicians and poets have an unhappy ending. What's she like as a person? Sort order. It definitely is a must read for everyone and it will show you to live life to the fullest and to always speak what your feeling never hold .
